FINDINGS CIVIL NO CONTACT ORDERS

Emergency Interim Plenary

(Finding solely applicable to ex parte Emergency No Contact Order)
The Court, having examined the Petition filed in this case as well as the person presenting the petition under oath,
FINDS THAT:
The averments presented are sufficient to grant the relief ordered.

The Court, having examined the Petition filed in this case and having conducted a hearing thereon, under oath,

FINDS THAT:

- A. It has jurisdiction over the subject matter and over all necessary persons in these proceedings pursuant to the Illinois Civil No Contact Order Act, 740 ILCS 22/201 et.seq.
B. _____ has/have been sexually abused by Respondent.
C. Said abuse has consisted of non-consensual (lack of freely given agreement):
Sexual touching or fondling Sexual penetration Other prohibited sexual conduct:
D. The following persons are also protected by this Order:
E. The Court has considered the nature, severity, pattern and consequences of past sexual abuse and the likelihood of future sexual abuse to Petitioner or future harm or injury to any member of the Petitioner's family or household.

- F. For the remedy relative to prohibitions on Respondent from entering or remaining present at Petitioner’s school, place of employment, or other places at times when Petitioner is present:
  - Respondent has no right to enter/remain present at such places(s); or
  - The balance of hardships favor Petitioner in prohibiting Respondent from entering or remaining at such place(s).
  - The specific place(s) are as follow:

---

---

- G. _____ is unable to bring the Petition on his/her own behalf due to age or disability.

- H. The disclosure of Petitioner’s address would risk abuse if Petitioner or some member of the family or household or would reveal the confidential address of a shelter for victims of sexual abuse.

- I. Filing fees are (Independent Proceedings only):       Waived       Deferred

- J. The hardship to Respondent, if remedy(ies) were granted, substantially outweighs the hardship to Petitioner in the following manner:

---

- K. Additional findings:

---

- L. For each of the remedies allowable under Emergency Civil No Contact Orders, the harm which that remedy is intended to prevent would be likely to occur if Respondent were given any prior notice, or greater notice than was actually given, of Petitioner’s efforts to obtain judicial relief.
