INSTRUCTIONS FOR GUARDIANS OF MINORS

You have been appointed guardian of a minor. When you file your bond and take your oath as guardian, you become an officer of the Court and assume certain duties and obligations.

1. You shall have custody of the minor. You shall make provisions for his/her support, care, comfort, health, education, maintenance and professional services as are appropriate.
2. You may not move the minor outside the State of Illinois or send the minor to live with anyone else without prior Court approval.
3. You may not vacation with the minor outside the State of Illinois for more than thirty (30) days without prior Court approval.
4. One year after your appointment as guardian, and annually thereafter, a report containing the necessary information on the enclosed form shall be filed with the Court. Please make copies of this packet before writing in it, this way you have this form for future years. Also, you may need additional copies in case you make an error on the original form.
5. This form is available online at the Circuit Court of Cook County's website at <http://www.cookcounty-clerkof court.org/>.
