Dorothy Brown Pays Tribute to Past Clerks of the Circuit Court

CHICAGO (July 19, 2005) - The Honorable Dorothy Brown, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County, will host a special tribute to, and photo unveiling of, the four past Clerks of the Circuit Court who have held office since the Circuit Courts of Cook County were unified in 1964. The event will be held on Thursday, July 28, 2005, at 5:30 p.m., in the Richard J. Daley Center, 50 W. Washington, in the East Lobby.

The Clerks include Joseph McDonough (1964-1968), Matthew Danaher (1968-1974), Morgan Finley (1974-1988) and Aurelia Pucinski (1988-2000). The unveiling will recognize the significant role each one played in helping the Clerk's Office advance.

"Over the years, the Clerk's Office has made great strides toward improving its record-keeping function. The commitment demonstrated by the various Clerks have truly been a benefit to the citizens of Cook County," said Clerk Brown. "Their significant and progressive reforms have created high standards and maximized the potential of each division in the Clerk's Office."

Family, friends and colleagues of the former Clerks have been invited to attend the event.
