Clerk Brown Elected President of Women of NACo
Brown will take office July 2013

CHICAGO --- Honorable Dorothy Brown, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County was elected as President for Women of NACo (National Association of Counties) Leadership Network, during NACo's 76th Annual Conference and Exposition on July 18, 2011. Clerk Brown will take office in 2013. She is currently Treasurer for the organization and last year, was appointed to the National Arts and Culture Commission.

The NACo Annual Conference is held each July and is hosted by a member county. This year, the conference was held in Multnomah County, (Portland) Oregon. County officials get the opportunity to vote on NACo's policies related to federal legislation and regulation; elect officers; network with colleagues; learn about innovative county programs; find out about issues impacting counties across the country; and view products and services from participating companies and exhibitors.

Women of NACo (WON) was established in 1975 as a caucus affiliate of the NACo. WON is comprised of elected, appointed, county staff, directors and affiliate members. Its purpose is to improve effectiveness of women officials by offering a network of support, encouragement, experience and unity. NACo is headquartered in Capitol Hill in Washington, D.C.
