Clerk Of The Circuit Court Dorothy Brown
Fulfills Special Christmas Wishes for Children

WHAT: The Honorable Dorothy Brown, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County, and the Clerk's Office staff will fulfill Christmas wishes for over 75 students at the Anthony Overton Elementary School.

The Clerk's Office staff purchased various items, including clothing and toys, to complete Christmas wish list letters written to the Santa's Letter Program coordinated by the United States Postal Service.

"This is the fourth year the Clerk's Office has worked to donate items and gifts to the students at Overton Elementary," said Clerk Brown. "I am thankful that the Clerk's Office staff has come together to make a difference in the lives of children who may not experience a traditional Christmas."

WHEN: Wednesday, December 20, 2006
9:30 a.m.

WHERE: Anthony Overton Elementary School
4935 S. Indiana
Chicago

DETAILS: In response to the U.S. Postal Service's request to adopt schools to fulfill the more than 300 letters not answered each holiday season, the Clerk's Office adopted Anthony Overton and Alberta Hall Elementary School. Many students attending these schools are economically challenged and requested assistance during the holiday season.
