CLERK DOROTHY BROWN REMEMBERS ROGER EBERT

CHICAGO (April 4, 2013) --- I am deeply saddened by the loss of Chicago Sun-Times, award winning film critic Roger Ebert. For 46 years, Roger was a Chicago icon who went to the movies and told us about it. He captured our attention, each week with his terrific reviews in the paper and on television. Through it all you could see that he was simply a nice guy who loved to go to the movies and then told us about it. My deepest sympathy goes out to his lovely wife Chaz Ebert. I will always remember his smile and his signature statement "See you at the movies."
