Clerk Dorothy Brown Welcomes Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México Law Students and Professors for Tour of Circuit Court Clerk's Office

What: The Honorable Dorothy Brown, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County, will host approximately 26 law students and professors from the Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México (UNAM) (National Autonomous University of Mexico), Mexico City's campus, for a tour of the Clerk's Office.

Clerk Brown will provide the visiting students and professors with an overview of the Clerk's Office operations and a tour of the Clerk's Office's departments and divisions including: Accounting, Archives, Chancery, Civil, County, Criminal, Law, Probate and Traffic. The UNAM students and professors plan to focus on the Clerk's Office's administration, operations, facilities management and use of technology.

"As one of the largest unified court systems in the country, the Office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County is viewed as a leader in court operations, office efficiency, technology and customer service," said Clerk Brown. "We are delighted to host the law students from UNAM, knowing that viewing our Office and learning about its functions may assist them in their legal studies."

When: Tuesday, July 22, 2014
9 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

Where: Richard J. Daley Center
50 West Washington, Room 1001

Details: The Office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County is one of the most operationally efficient court-affiliated agencies in the country, and has been studied by representatives of several countries because of its record of success.
